

Heriot-Watt Learning & Teaching Week 6th-8th June 2022

Re-imagining University Education: Possible Futures and Practical Action for Change

Tuesday 07/06/2022	Possible Futures: Exploring Globally Connected Learning
08:20-08:30 UK 11:20-11:30 Dubai 15:20-15:30 Malaysia	Welcome to Learning and Teaching Week 2022 Professor Martha Caddell (Learning & Teaching Academy)
08:30-09:30 UK 11:30-12:30 Dubai 15:30-16:30 Malaysia	KEYNOTE PRESENTATION Are we connecting yet? Exploring globally-connected learning, the mala hotpot way. Dr Chng Huang Hoon, National University of Singapore, will offer our opening keynote talk. She will explore with us what connected learning means and offer practical tips on how to facilitate meaningful connections. Drawing on her research and examples from her work at the University of Singapore, she will challenge us to explore what a 'globally-connected' student experience could mean in the Heriot-Watt context.
9:30-10:00 UK 12:30-13:00 Dubai 16:30-17:00 Malaysia	Keynote Tea Break Conversation An opportunity for a follow-up informal discussion with our Keynote Speaker. Bring your own tea and biscuits!
10:00- 10:45 UK 13:00-13:45 Dubai 17:00-17:45 Malaysia	Inspiring Educational Leadership: What HEA Fellowship can do for you. An opportunity to find out more about Senior and Principal Fellowship of the Higher Education Academy: How to apply, what it involves, and how it can help transform your educational leadership practice. Join the Fellowship team and colleagues who have recently been awarded Fellowship at this open forum.

10:45- 12:15 UK 13:45-15:15 Dubai 17:45-19:15 Malaysia	Sharing Practice Session 1 Join colleagues from across the university to share innovations in learning and teaching and practical hints and tips that could enhance your course design and classroom craft.
12:15- 13:15 UK 15:15-16:15 Dubai 19:15-20:45 Malaysia	Roundtable discussion Embedding global challenges in the curriculum Join colleagues from across the University to share insights and experience they are embedding challenge-based approaches in their courses and how they are ensuring students not only have the opportunity to study the world around us but have opportunity to shape and transform thinking on the global challenges of our time.
BREAK
14:00- 15:00 UK 17:00-18:00 Dubai 21:00-22:00 Malaysia	Sharing Practice Session 2 Join colleagues from across the university to share innovations in learning and teaching and practical hints and tips that could enhance your course design and classroom craft.
15:00- 16:00 UK 18:00-19:00 Dubai 22:00-23:00 Malaysia	Sharing Practice Session 3 Join colleagues from across the university to share innovations in learning and teaching and practical hints and tips that could enhance your course design and classroom craft.
Wednesday 08/06/2021
Possible Futures: Understanding Student Lives and Student Learning
08:30-09:30 UK 11:30-12:30 Dubai 15:30-16:30 Malaysia	KEYNOTE PRESENTATION Post-pandemic mattering: What matters to students and how do they know we care?" Speaker: Professor Jenny Marie (University of Greenwich) The challenges of the last two years have thrust the complexity of student lives into the spotlight, with economic and mental health challenges of increasing concern. Understanding the context of student learning and how to build supportive, compassionate approaches to teaching into our course design is vital. To support our collective thinking around this, we will be joined by Professor Jenny Marie from the University of Greenwich who will offer a keynote discussion explore the power of putting student partnerships at the heart of learning design and university practice.

9:30-10:00 UK 12:30-13:00 Dubai 16:30-17:00 Malaysia	Keynote Tea Break Conversation An opportunity for a follow-up informal discussion with our Keynote Speaker. Bring your own tea and biscuits!
10:00-11:00 UK 13:00-14:00 Dubai 17:00-18:00 Malaysia	Sharing Practice Session 4 Join colleagues from across the university to share innovations in learning and teaching and practical hints and tips that could enhance your course design and classroom craft.
11:00-12:00 UK 14:00-15:00 Dubai 18:00-19:00 Malaysia	Sharing Practice Session 5 Join colleagues from across the university to share innovations in learning and teaching and practical hints and tips that could enhance your course design and classroom craft.
12:15-13:15 UK 15:15-16:15 Dubai 19:15-20:15 Malaysia	Roundtable discussion Understanding Student Lives and Student Learning Join colleagues from around the university to share practical tips and approaches to support students through their academic studies and through their wider university experience.
BREAK
14:00- 15:00 UK 17:00-18:00 Dubai 21:00-22:00 Malaysia	Sharing Practice Session 6 Join colleagues from across the university to share innovations in learning and teaching and practical hints and tips that could enhance your course design and classroom craft.
15:00- 16:00 UK 18:00-19:00 Dubai 22:00-23:00 Malaysia	Sharing Practice Session 7 Join colleagues from across the university to share innovations in learning and teaching and practical hints and tips that could enhance your course design and classroom craft.
CLOSE

All sessions will be held on Zoom. The full programme, including meeting links will be available on the Learning and Teaching Academy website on 26th May